

Dry Weather Screening

LEGEND

- Franklin County Boundary
- Historic Township Boundaries
- Other County Boundaries

Dry Weather Screening Locations

- DWS Assessment
- Obvious / Severe Pollution
 - Potential / Likely Pollution
 - Unlikely Pollution

Note:

Due to the dynamic nature of the conditions related to these data, the information shown is considered the best available data and is being used as such. The existence and categorization of the data represented is subject to change due to: additional data being collected and analyzed, refinement of agency programs, updating of regulatory documents, or reallocation of funding related to storm water projects and personnel.

DISCLAIMER: These map(s) and data are to be used for reference purposes only. Franklin Soil and Water Conservation District and its agents, consultants, contractors, or employees provide this data and information "AS IS" without warranty of any kind, implied or expressed, as to the information being accurate or complete. These data were developed and intended exclusively for use by Franklin County governmental officials or their agents, consultants, contractors, or employees in developing plans to address water quality concerns. Any other user of this data agrees to waive, release, and indemnify Franklin Soil and Water Conservation District, its agents, consultants, contractors and employees from any and all claims, actions, or causes of action for damages or injury to persons or property arising from the use or inability to use Franklin Soil and Water Conservation District GIS data.

